

Code of Ethics

Members shall:

1. Always act in an ethical manner and in accordance with the law,
2. Report unethical and unlawful acts to the appropriate authorities,
3. Contribute to the field of identity management and support peers,
4. Perform all work with the highest professional standards and supervise the work of subordinates with the highest degree of professional care,
5. Exercise diligence, objectivity and honesty in professional activities,
6. Continually seek to increase professional knowledge and skills,
7. Apply requirements and standards prescribed by authorized public agencies and employers which may be applicable to work performed,
8. Not engage in acts or be associated with activities which are contrary to the public interest or bring discredit to the Institute,
9. Not purposefully transmit or use confidential information obtained in professional work for personal gain or other advantage,
10. Not hide unlawful acts discovered through the course of professional activities,
11. Not engage in any activity or relationships which create or give the appearance of a conflict with employer-related responsibilities, and
12. Not be party to any illegal activity.